McMillan Group International Announces Free Tactical Training with Purchase of any McMillan Rifle

Phoenix, AZ (January 6, 2010) – McMillan Group International is offering free tactical training with the purchase of any McMillan rifle, including TAC™-Series rifles, Custom Collection™ Hunting Rifles, or Long Range Hunting Rifles. McMillan's customers will receive a two-day Marksmanship Training Course taught on McMillan gun ranges in Arizona.

Course instruction includes firearms operation, rifle maintenance, application of fire and a basic tactical overview for civilians. Each class is taught by McMillan instructors who are experienced military and law enforcement operators with proven experience. The course is split between classroom and range time.

“Our instructors for the Marksmanship Training Course are some of the most experienced in the industry. They understand the importance of high quality training and are committed to bringing McMillan's customers the best in tactical and firearms training,” said Ryan McMillan, vice president of McMillan. “Our free tactical training offer provides our customers an opportunity to maximize their potential using a McMillan rifle.”

The Marksmanship Training Course is also available to individuals who do not own a McMillan rifle. The cost for the training course is $800 and includes the rental of a McMillan rifle. McMillan will apply a refund toward the purchase of a new McMillan rifle if purchased during the course.

“As far as I know this is a first in the firearms industry. McMillan is proud to make such an offer to our customers,” concluded McMillan.

Multiple course dates will be offered throughout the year. The next available training course is February 20 and February 21, 2010. For additional information visit McMillan's website, www.mcmillanusa.com
