McMillan Quality

After 30 years developing tactical rifles for our nation's elite military and law enforcement teams, McMillan has finally combined the best of tactical and hunting technologies. The Tactical Hunter features McMillan's proprietary EDGE ultralight graphite stock to save weight without sacrificing strength. The action is its precision G30 in short or long variants and is chambered in four calibers. Offhand or off a bipod, the Tactical Hunter gives you benchrest accuracy, superior ergonomics and aggressive styling in a trim rifle you can carry in the field all day: $4,449, (623) 582-0536;
